SYNOPSIS:

David was arrested and booked for fighting with his brother.

NARRATIVE:

On August 31, 2003 at 0038 hours, I was dispatched to a domestic dispute, at South Ice House Canyon Road.

Dispatch advised that two brothers got into a fight, one of the brothers was in the creek area and the other was at the house.

On arrival, I spoke to [redacted] who was sitting on the side of the road. [redacted] stated that his brother, David, and his wife went to a party at the Country Club. This was while [redacted] baby sat the kids. David called [redacted] and told him to come to the party. [redacted] loaded the kids and went to the County Club. [redacted] and David were drinking and David's wife took the kids home.

David and [redacted] were on their way home, this was around the back road by the Pinals. David started to get upset and slammed on the brakes. David wanted to fight [redacted] on the dirt road. David got out of the truck and started to side of the truck. David fell into the wash ditch and started to get up again. David ran to the passenger side and grabbed onto [redacted] shirt. David ripped the shirt off and they started to fight. They stopped that fight and went to the house.

David went into his room and put on his work boots. David came out of the room and started to throw chairs at [redacted]. [redacted] held David down and then let him up. David continued to want to fight. [redacted] grabbed his suitcase and ran across the street. [redacted] called the Sheriff's Office on David's cell phone. David then stood on the porch and called names.

Sgt. Johnson and Deputy Strickland and I went to the residence and spoke to David's wife who answered the door. She stated that David was sleeping and she would have to wake him.

David came out of the bedroom and I asked him what happen between he and his brother. David stated "not all three of you have to be in my house". I explained to David that we were investigating a domestic dispute. David stated that him and his wife were not fighting and that they were at home sleeping. I explained to David that he and his brother got into a fight and that was a domestic. David stated that he was not going to argue the law with me. I asked David what happened between him and his brother. David stated, I am not talking to you. I will speak to the Attorney General's Office.

David was placed under arrest and handcuffed. While I escorted David out to my vehicle, he stopped and insisted that I not touch him. Sgt. Johnson escorted David out to Deputy Strickland's vehicle.

Photos of a chair that was lying on the ground next to the south wall was taken. Miss Cook stated that it fell over.

stated that he was going back home in Oklahoma, first thing in the morning. Sgt. Johnson took to the Willow Motel.

Deputy Strickland transported David to the Jail and he was booked for Domestic /Disorderly Conduct. David is waiting a court hearing.

Case closed by arrest.

ATTACHEMENTS:

*ARIZONA ACCIDENT FORM
*PHOTOS
*TOW FORM
*ARIZONA TRAFFIC CITATION

WEATHER CONDITIONS:

The incident occurred during nighttime hours. The roadway surface was dry asphalt on Ice House Canyon Road.

VEHICLES:

Vehicle #1: 2001 Chevrolet, Gold in color, Silverado with Arizona Plate #

SYNOPSIS:

This was a signal vehicle accident without any injuries, which occurred on 01/22/11 at approximately 0300 hours. The incident occurred on Ice House Canyon Road and damaged the fence of Ice House Canyon.

NARRATIVE:

On 01/22/11 at 0906 hours, I was dispatched to Ice House Canyon Road for a signal vehicle accident. Upon my arrival I meet the complainant just south of his property in a dirt pull off on Ice House Canyon Road. There in the dirt pull off was Gold in color Chevrolet Silverado truck unoccupied. The vehicle had front end damage and paint transfer from the Complainants fence.

I took photos of the vehicle and had dispatch check the vehicle for the registered owner and wants. I also had dispatch have a tow truck come to my location. I had the vehicle towed and stored by Action Towing. I was told that the owner of the vehicle lives in Nevada, but the vehicle is showing a local address of Montecito Globe AZ 85501.

After having the vehicle towed I went to Ice House Canyon and took photos of the fence that was damaged. I measured approximately 358 feet of wood and metal fence that was ran over by the suspect vehicle. The paint off the trucks front bumper matched the paint from the fence on scene. There was also damage to trees, shrubs, and bushes on the property.

After I finished the on scene investigation I left and went to Montecito to make contact with a possible driver.

While continuing my investigation I spoke with the driver of the vehicle at the time of the accident that was identified as Kyle Lyngar by his Arizona Drivers License.

DRIVER'S STATEMENTS:

Kyle Stated to me:

- *He went to the Pinal to go pull a friend out that got his vehicle stuck
- *While driving home from helping his friend he drove off the road
- *After driving off the road he drove through a fence and back onto the road
- *Kyle blew out two tires after driving through trees, bushes and off a small embankment.
- *Kyle stated he did not report it at the time of the incident because it was late and he knew the person whom fence that he drove through.
- *Kyle said he knew this person through friends
- *After he went through the fence he drove his truck down the road and into a dirt pull out
- *He called a friend to pick him up and decided that he would report this later in the day

INVESTIGATION:

Accident synopsis:

Vehicle #1 was driving northwest on Ice House Canyon Road. Vehicle # 1 was driving to fast to maneuver a curve and started to lose control driver #1 tired to correct the vehicle, but lost control and slide of the roadway on the west side of the roadway. Vehicle #1, drove through trees, bushes, shrubs and fence and than slide down a small embankment come back onto the roadway.

There was damage to the front of the vehicle and damage to 358 feet of fence. There was skidding that occurred. The overall result was that Vehicle # 1 lost control, due to driving to fast for conditions.

Report was taken and insurance information was recorded.

Case closed.

SYNOPSIS:

On June 4, 2011, Mark William Sims was involved in a motor vehicle accident while operating a tractor and trailer commercial vehicle. Mr. Sims indicated he was not injured as a result of the collision. Property damage was reported and observed in the form of one head of live stock. (Cow) The live stock owner was identified as _____ and he was promptly informed of the incident. A second later communication with _____ revealed the cow had to be destroyed due to extensive untreatable injuries.

NARRATIVE:

On June 4, 2011, at approximately 0044 hours, I was dispatched to Pinto Valley Road. Dispatch advised that was in reference to a motor vehicle accident involving a collision between a truck and a cow.

While en-route dispatch informed medical was also traveling to the incident location.

After turning onto Pinto Valley Rd I observed a cow off road approximately 1.1. miles west of Hwy 60. The cow appeared to be severely injured in the rear end area and rear legs. Portions of blood patches were observed on the rear legs where the skin appeared to be removed. Approximately 100 yards forward of that location I observed a tractor, trailer vehicle off road parked in a pull out area.

Upon my arrival I contacted Mr. Mark William Sims who identified himself as the driver of the commercial vehicle involved in the collision. I asked Mr. Sims if he was injured as a result of the collision and he stated he was not. I advised Mr. Sims medical assistance was responding in the event he needed to be evaluated.

I asked Mr. Sims to explain what had occurred. Mr. Sims stated he was traveling Pinto Valley Rd. for a lam delivery to the mine property. Mr. Sims identified he was employed by "Cecil Trucking" and was traveling alone at the time of the collision. Mr. Sims stated there have been recent sightings of cows "walking in the middle of the road." Mr. Sims stated he was traveling approximately 35 miles per hour when he observed a black cow "step out" into the roadway. Ms. Sims stated after the collision occurred, he pulled off of the roadway. When I inquired Mr. Sims said he was hauling a "full load" of Sulfuric acid and was traveling to the "BHP Pinto Valley" mine. Mr. Sims provided a written statement at my request. (See Attached)

During my interview with Mr. Sims, Tri City Fire / Rescue had arrived and completed a brief assessment of the injured cow. I was informed at that time the cow was pregnant.

I requested dispatch to locate the possible owner of the cow and attempt to make contact to inform of the incident.

Mr. Sims was operating the following commercial vehicle at the time of the collision:

- *Red color, 1996 "Kenworth" truck / tractor / Model type T800
- *Vehicle was bearing an Arizona ber
- *Vehicle Identification Number
- *Vehicle is operated by "BJ Cecil Trucking" PO Box 2228 Claypool, Az. 85532
- *Vehicle Lien holder was identified as "Wells Fargo Bank."
- *Trailer was identified as a model SRX2 tanker
- *Vehicle was bearing an Arizona license plate number
- *Vehicle Identification Number

(Vehicle Insurance information was attached to the case file)

Vehicle damage was observed on the front right side (passenger side) of the truck in the form of broken head lamp mounts which appeared to be contact damage.

Cracked fiberglass was observed above and on the sides of the contact damage. (Induced damage)

Photographs of the investigation were obtained and turned over into evidence. The photographs reveal the vehicle damage, the injured cow and the roadway (skid marks) leading to and at the collision location.

Dispatch advised contact was made with who was said to be the cattle owner. Dispatch patched through to my telephone at which time I requested him to travel to my location to assess his cow and provide treatment.

The collision investigation revealed the following:

- *Mr. Sims was traveling west bound on the Pinto Valley Rd.
- *The roadway leading to and at the collision location was dry.
- *There was no light source other than the vehicle headlamps and limited moon light.
- *Roadway width at the collision location was measured at 29'.9"
- *Skid marks from the rear, left side (driver side) wheels were measured at 86'.2"
- *Roadway surface was "traveled" dry asphalt indicating a vehicle drag factor of .70.
- *"Minimum speed" at the beginning of the skid was equated to be 39 miles per hour.
- *Mr. Sims completed a left curve in the roadway which then proceeded to a straight portion of roadway where the collision location was observed.
- *Portions of cow hide were observed on the roadway at the collision location.

Following the investigation Mark William Sims received citation number G-4333 for the following violation:

*Failure to Control Speed to Avoid a Collision, pursuant to A.R.S. 28-701A.

arrived to the collision location and assessed the cow. stated the cow was badly injured and was "in shock." indicated he wanted to leave the cow in place until sunrise and let it rest. A second assessment of the injuries would be made in the morning. When I inquired, confirmed the cow was pregnant.

A later communication with by telephone revealed he "put the cow down" the following morning of the incident due to the extensive injuries. valued the cow at $1,500.00.

SYNOPSIS:

On June 19, 2011 Daniel Weatherman was involved in a vehicle accident hitting and killed a black baby cow on Forest Service Road 287.

NARRATIVE:

On June 19, 2011 at approximately 23:27 hours I was dispatched to the Carlotta Mine Road which is FS road 287 reference to a vehicle accident. Dispatch advised me mine security called to report a van had hit and killed a baby cow. Dispatch advised me that mine security had contacted the cow owner.

I responded to FS road 287 and travel about one mile down the road when I contacted a Daniel Weatherman who was seating inside of his work van. Daniel advised me he was traveling up the hill when he came around the curve a small cow step out into the road in-front of him and he was not about to swerve fast enough to avoid hitting the cow. Daniel hit the cow with the right side of his vehicle.

The vehicle Daniel was driving was Arizona " a 2005 Chevy van registered to "Thomas Janitorial Service" out of Globe. The van received damage to the light, side panel, bumper and hood area.

The black cow Daniel hit was killed. The owner of the cow was notified of the accident.

Photographs were taken of the damage to the van, and also of the black cow. There were no skid marks on the road way which indicated Daniel had no time to apply his brakes.

I got all of the information on Daniel and the vehicle and gave him a report number.

Daniel left the area and I remained for 30 minutes waiting to see if Mr. Cook was responding. I had no contact with him.

NO FURTHER ACTION TAKEN.

On January 21, 2012, Canyon Fire Fighters extinguished a fire located on the property of David Cook. Two barrels of what was identified as trash were observed by an unidentified person passing the property and the person in turn notified Canyon Fire. According to state law and county ordinance there did not appear to be a violation of law.

NARRATIVE:

On January 21, 2012, at approximately I was located within the Gila County Sheriff's Office and was contacted by dispatch via telephone. Dispatch advised Canyon Fire was requesting a deputy to a property located at Ice House Canyon due to an "illegal burning."

Upon my arrival I observed the property to be owned by David Cook. I observed two Canyon Fire Fighters on the property who were then identified as Bobby Wright and Thomas Lin.

Mr. Wright informed he was notified by someone who was passing by the property and said there was a fire burning in the barrels. Mr. Wright said when he and Mr. Lin arrived the fire was burning within the barrels and nobody was in the area. Mr. Wright proceeded to extinguish the fire and dump the contents of the barrels. The contents were identified as beer bottles, possibly wine bottles and trash.

Mr. Wright stated he wanted a member of the Gila County Sheriff's Office present due to having accessed the property with the property owner not being present. In addition Mr. Wright was requesting I observe only that the barrels and contents were affected as a result of his entering the property.

We were unable to make successful contact with a person and or persons at the residence. An attempt was also made by telephone at my request to dispatch with no success.
